

INTER-DISCIPLINARY MARITIME PRACTICE WORKSHOP SERIES II

Third (3rd) SESSION ON THURSDAY 19th January 2017

This is the second series of workshops with a theme of “Inter-disciplinary Maritime Practice” (IMP), and is jointly organized by The Hong Kong Logistics Management Staff Association (HKLMSA), C.Y. Tung International Centre for Maritime Studies, PolyU (ICMS) and the Hong Kong Seamen Union (HKSU). This IMP Series II (2) will follow the same methodology and format like the IMP Workshop Series I launched in January 2014, which was conceived to cover the entire lifespan of a ship, from the decision to purchase to its final loss or scrapping, and designed to provide a platform for eminent professionals from the Hong Kong Maritime Industry to unreservedly share their view and valuable experience with those professionals, young entrants in particular, in the shipping fraternity of the Greater China Region. IMP S1 was conducted in interactive and mind-provoking sessions, the value of which was clearly endorsed by most of the participants who requested incessantly for the repeat of a similar programme for months after the completion of IMP S1 December 2015. Responding to such earnest requests, the IMP Committee, have through its relentless efforts, succeeded in re-introducing an innovative, educational and interesting programme in IMP S2, in monthly 2.5-hour workshop sessions commencing on 29th November 2016. The Third Session of the IMP Workshop Series II is on the topic of PROJECT MANAGEMENT, SHIPBUILDING & S&P. The Project Management will be based on the model of an Offshore Wind Energy project in the Greater China Region, and the various related maritime fields, viz., construction of specialized vessels and port facilities etc. The Shipbuilding & S&P will look at the practical issues faced in Shipbuilding and related areas.
